NAL's Special Collections houses rare books, manuscript collections, nursery and seed trade catalogs, photographs, and posters from the 1500s to the present. Many of these materials contain beautiful images that lend themselves to being reproduced and framed for the home or for gifts.

Digital copies, photocopies and fine art print reproductions of images are available for purchase from NAL. A sample of images available from Special Collections is shown in our Image Gallery at <http://www.nal.usda.gov/speccoll/imagegallery.shtml>

To place an order or make an appointment to visit Special Collections, please email Special Collections at Special.Collections@ars.usda.gov or by calling 301-504-5876.

7 U.S.C. § 3125 a sets out the general authorities of NAL: the NAL Director may – 1) make copies of bibliographies prepared by the NAL; 2) make microforms and other reproductions of books and other library materials in the Department; 3) provide any other library and information products and services; and 4) sell those products and services at such prices (not less than the estimated total costs of disseminating the products and services) as the Secretary may determine appropriate.
