

ANIMAL PARASITOLOGY INSTITUTE PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM INDEX

Volume One

Page No.

1. First Ag Building - Opened in 1868 Animal Pathology Lab. upper floor
View of Mall from 12th St. S.W. to Potomac showing half-finished
  2. Washington Monument (1868) APL occupied this space from 1883 - 1891
  2. Laboratory of Animal Pathology - 1362 B St. S.W. Washington, D. C.
(c. 1894) Animal Pathology Laboratory occupied this space 1891-1908
Animal Pathology Laboratory (1894) W.S.D. Haines, Med. Illus. (left
C. F. Dawson, R. Stewart and V.A. Moore. (L to R)
  3. The Library (c. 1894) L to R. Mrs. Barnard, J. V. Moon, (Reprinted by Albert Candido from a photograph by Kios) 1362 B St. S.W.
  4. Cooper Curtice, D.V.M. 1881 (1881) In charge of parasitological
Dr. and Mrs. Cooper Curtice (1887) Inv. 8/1/86-5/31/91; 1894-1896;
Biological Society of Washington Program announcements of meetings and programs participated in by Dr. Curtice. 1906 - 1930.
  5. Dr. Cooper Curtice (1905) and (1917) (Otherwise " Dr. Ticks".
Biological Society of Washington Program notices showing Dr. Curtice was a participant in the program.
  6. A.V.M.A. Medals for Distinguished Service awarded Dr. Curtice (1933)
(Front and obverse sides of medal) Tick Eradication Program and other parasitological contributions)
Dr. Curtice with sheep (Mississippi, A&M College 11/13/28
  7. Dr. Cooper Curtice 1933 (On the occasion of medal award)
Dr. Cooper Curtice (1938)
  8. Dr. Charles Wardell Stiles , In charge of Zoological Laboratory,
June 3, 1891 to June 1, 1903. Photos 1892, 1893, 1896, and 1921
  - 9a Charles Wardell Stiles (1932) (Lines written by Dr. M.C. Hall, later
Chief, Zoological Division, B.A.I.
- Loose Picture, Dr. Charles Wardell Stiles in his Public Health Service Uniform. ( No date, but possibly around 1900

Volume One (continued)

Page No.

10. Dr. Albert Hassall, Zoologist (1893), 1891 - retirement 1932 as Assistant Chief, Zoological Division. Collaborator with Stiles 1934 - 1942 (started Index Catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology, and the Parasite Collection.

Dr. Albert Hassall, (1917), (1920), (before 1925) and (1925)
11. Dr. Albert Hassall and Charles Wardell Stiles at desk in their office ca. 1900 (Courtesy of Natl. Library of Medicine), Bethesda, Md. 20014) (Stiles, Right, Hassall, Left)
12. East Wing of New Agricultural Building into which the Zoological Division moved in 1908 (Second Floor, Northeast Corner, occupied several rooms) (First Agriculture Building at top left waiting to be torn down. Excavation for Administration Building that will connect East and West Wings (See bottom photo) (1928)

Lower photo shows completed Center Section and entire South Building which was constructed in the late 1930's. Note arches connecting them at the third floor level, so pedestrians could avoid crossing at street level.
13. Dr. Albert Hassall (1920's), 1927, and (1932). Retirement work continued.
14. Dr. Albert Hassall refused to quit work when retired and continued to come to the office and work on Index Cat. Newspaper clippings of event.
15. Dr. Albert Hassall and poems written about him. Photo (1938)
16. Dr. Brayton Howard Ransom (R with pipe) No date B. H. Ransom (Date unknown) Group photo. L to R. Kearney, BPI, J. Emery and B.H. Ransom, and Dr. McDonald of the Transvaal, South Africa. (1906) June.
Dr. Ransom, Chief Zoological Division 7/1/06 - 9/17/25. In Charge of Zoological Laboratory from June 1, 1903 to 7/1/06.
17. Dr. B. H. Ransom and his Staff (Zoological Division) (1912) L to R. Lillian Krause, Howard Crawley, Zoologist, Estelle Havener, Clerk, Albert Hassall, Zoologist, Harry Graybill, Zoologist, Winthrop Foster, Zoologist, and Brayton H. Ransom, Chief Zoologist. (Reprinted by Albert Candido from a photograph by Brown and Weintraub.
18. Lillian Krause (1920) Secretary, Dr. B. H. Ransom (Prior to 1920) (?)
Echinococcus granulosus (Original - by Dr. Ransom)

Volume One(Continued)

Page No.

19. McLean County, Ill System of Swine Sanitation (Drs. Raffensperger, and Ransom with float showing effects of this method of raising pigs.
20. B. H. Ransom reading Asiatic (@riental Language Paper) (1924)
Camera crew at Swine Sanitation Gathering to demonstrate effects)
L - R. Dr. B. H. Ransom, Dr. H. B. Raffensperger, Mr. Gurgens,
Mr. Perkins, James W. Connelly, Ray Cuff. This group filmed story of sanitation system entitled "Exit Ascaris

B. H. Ransom, Mrs. Ransom and sister (?) 1922.

End of Volume one

Pictures for talk on
HISTORY OF THE ANIMAL PARASITOLOGY
INSTITUTE

1. Picture of the Patent Office Building
2. The first USDA Building at 13th and B streets S.W.
(The Office of the Veterinary Division (soon to become the Bureau of Animal Industry, and the Animal Pathology Laboratory, occupied the upper floor of this building from 1883 to 1891).
3. Dr. Cooper Curtice, in charge of Parasitological Investigations, August 1, 1886 - May 31, 1891, and Veterinary Parasitologist 1894-1896; and from 1906 to 1930.
4. Dr. Curtice and his wife(1887).
5. Dr. Curtice(1905).
6. Dr. Curtice (1917).
7. Dr. Curtice (1928)
8. Dr. Curtice (1933)
9. AVMA Medal for Distigpished Service awarded in 1933.
10. Dr. Curtice (1938)
11. Laboratory for Animal Pathology - 1362 B Street,S.W., Washington, D. C. Occupied by Zoological Division (Laboratory) from 1891 to 1908. Zoology was on the first floor
12. Dr. Charles Wardell Stiles Chief of Zoological Division June 1, 1891 to June 1903. (1892)
13. Dr. Stiles 1893
14. Dr. Stiles 1896
15. Dr. Stiles in PHS uniform (date around 1909) when he went to the PHS as head of Hygienic Laboratory.
16. Dr. Stiles (1921)
17. Dr. Stiles (1932)
18. Dr. Albert Hassall transferred to the Zoological Laboratory in 1891 (1893)
19. Stiles and Hassall in their office xo 1900.
20. Hassall, 1910

Pictures for History of Animal Parasitology Institute. (talk)

21. Dr. Albert Hassall, (1917)
22. Dr. Hassall (1920)
23. Dr. Hassall on his farm (1925) near Bowie, Maryland.
24. Dr. Hassall (in 1920's)
25. Dr. Hassall (1927)
26. Dr. Hassall (1932)
27. Dr. Hassall (1938) (Also 3 newspaper clippings re Dr. Hassall's working after retirement for no pay).
28. Dr. Brayton Howard Ransom (Chief, Zool. Division) 1903 - 1925.
29. First Agricultural Building, Statistical Building, and East Wing and West Wing and they appeared from (1908 - 1928)
30. The Zoological Division moved into the East Wing 2nd Floor, northeast corner and east side in 1908 from the Laboratory at 1363 B Street. S.W.
31. East Wing of USDA in 1928 at the start of construction of the center Administration Building.
32. Completed Administration Building, and South Building (completed in the 1930's) with arched passageways for pedestrian traffic between them.
33. Dr. Brayton Howard Ransom with friends in Colorado (no date)
34. Dr. Ransom and Staff of Zoological Division (ca. 1912). Miss Krause, Secretary, H. Crawley, Zoologist, Estelle Havener, Clerk, Albert Hassall, Zoologist, Harry Graybill, Zoologist, Winthrop Foster, Zoologist, and Brayton H. Ransom (seated) in East wing of USDA Building.
35. Miss Krause (1920)
36. Dr. Ransom (before 1920) ?
37. Drs. Raffensperger and Ransom in Bloomington, Illinois. (1922)
38. Dr. Ransom (1924)
39. Dr. Ransom and crew that made film called "Exit Ascaris".
40. Dr. and Mrs. Ransom and Dr. Ransom's sister (?).